

What will our children lose?

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: March 3, 2011

Contact: Rich Scierka 860-906-8233

rich@baldwinmedia.net

MEDIA ADVISORY

Governor Malloy to Join Education Leaders at Day on the Hill

WHAT: The Connecticut Association of Boards of Education (CABE) Day on the Hill: A state legislative network program for school board members, superintendents, education professionals, students and guests. Governor Malloy to address participants regarding education issues in the state: including the “Education Funding Gap” brought on by the 270 million dollar a year federal stimulus package.

WHEN: Wednesday March 9, 2011 8:30am – 5:00pm

WHERE: 8:30am – 12:00pm The Bushnell , Autorino Great Hall
Remarks by legislative leadership and issues briefing.

10:00am Gov. Malloy to address education leadership and attendees

12:00pm – 3:00pm Room 310, State Capitol
“March to the Hill” Supporters participate in the traditional “March” from the Bushnell to the Capitol. Upon arrival: students, legislators, board members engage in educational issues discussion and individual lobbying.

3:00pm – 5:00pm Room 310, State Capitol
Legislative Reception. End of day desert reception with legislators and participants.

ABOUT: Participants to include members of the What Will Our Children Lose coalition. Comprised of representatives from the Connecticut Association of Boards of Education, Connecticut Association of School Business Officials and the Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents. These advocates for public education pledge to provide information to the community and statewide education leaders in order to find attainable results for their school districts. For more information visit www.WhatWillOurChildrenLose.com

###